

«Approved»

By the decision of the constituent assembly of founders of the public organization «International Association of Podology and Foot Care»
Protocol No.1 from March 20, 2019

STATUTE OF A PUBLIC ORGANIZATION
«International Association of Podology and Foot Care»

C.Lviv – 2018

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1. Public organization «International Association of Podology and Foot Care» (hereinafter referred to as the Organization) is a voluntary association of individuals created for protection of the rights and freedoms of man and citizen, public satisfaction, in particular, economic, social, cultural, educational and other interests of its members and other persons.

1.2. Name of the Organization: Public organization «International Association of Podology and Foot Care» Abbreviated OO «IAPFC»

1.3. Name of organization in a foreign language: Full – «International Association of Podology and Foot Care», abbreviated - IFCPA

1.4. The Organization in its activities is guided by the Constitution of Ukraine, the Civil Code of Ukraine, the Tax Code of Ukraine, the Law of Ukraine «On Public Associations», the Law of Ukraine «On State Registration of Legal Entities, Individual Entrepreneurs and Public Organizations» and other applicable laws of Ukraine and this Statute. The legal basis for the organization's activities are also procedural documents and decisions of a generally accepted nature, adopted by the organization within their statutory powers and are binding on all members.

1.5. The organization is a non-entrepreneurial company whose main purpose is not to make a profit. The organization is free to choose the directions of its activity and acts on the principles of voluntariness, self-government, free choice of the territory of activity, equality before the law, lack of property interests of its members (participants), transparency, openness and publicity.

1.6. The main goal is to develop professional education of specialists in the field of Podology and foot care, as well as providing citizens with access to quality medical services in the field of Podology.

2. LEGAL STATUS OF THE ORGANIZATION

2.1. The Organization's activities are of a social nature, which is manifested in its interaction with state authorities, local governments, enterprises, institutions, organizations of various forms of ownership, partnerships with other public organizations, movements, foundations registered in Ukraine or abroad by citizens of Ukraine, by foreigners and stateless persons.

2.2. The Organization acquires the status of a legal entity from the moment of its state registration in accordance with applicable law, has its own seal, stamps and letterhead with its own name and accounts in banking institutions. An Organization may have its own symbols (logo, other recognition mark, flag), which must be registered in accordance with the law.

2.3. After state registration, an Organization has the exclusive right to use its names, including: a name set forth in a foreign language or the language of national minorities.

2.4. To achieve its goal and fulfill its statutory tasks, the Organization, in the prescribed legislation, has the right:

2.4.1. Be a participant in civil law relations, the acquisition of property and non-property rights in accordance with the law.

2.4.2. Represent and protect their legitimate interests and the legitimate interests of their members or other persons in any state bodies, including courts, law enforcement bodies, authorities, local governments, enterprises, institutions and organizations of all forms of ownership and subordination.

2.4.3. Freely disseminate information about their activities and promote their purpose.

2.4.4. To ideologically and organizationally support the associations of other citizens, to assist in their creation and conduct of activities.

- 2.4.5. Publish the scientific and methodological results of the Organization; conduct outreach work.
- 2.4.6. Receive, in accordance with the procedure established by law, public information held by the authorities and other public information administrators.
- 2.4.7. Participate in the Organization and financing, as well as in conferences, seminars, competitions, lectures, round tables, consultations, creative events, tournaments, competitions and other events related to the statute activities of the Organization, with the participation of civil society, state, local authorities, experts from various fields of public life, including international.
- 2.4.8. To receive assistance in the form of funds or property provided free of charge in form of membership fees, irrevocable financial assistance, donations, grants and decide on your own use in accordance with the provisions of the Statute and legislation of Ukraine.
- 2.4.9. Carry out, in the manner established by applicable law, the necessary entrepreneurial activity, directly or in the manner prescribed by law, of legal entities (companies, enterprises), if such activity is consistent with the goals (goals) of the Organization and contributes to its achievement.
- 2.4.10. To take part in the implementation of the state regulatory policy in accordance with the legislation of Ukraine.
- 2.4.11. To apply in the manner prescribed by law to state authorities, their officials and officials with proposals (comments), statements (petitions), complaints.
- 2.4.12. Receive, in accordance with the law, necessary for implementation goals and objectives, public information that is at the disposal of government entities and other public information administrators.
- 2.4.13. To take part in the procedure determined by law in the development of draft normative legal acts issued by state bodies and local authorities, concern the sphere of activity of the Organization and important issues and public life.
- 2.4.14. To take part in the procedure prescribed by law in the work of advisory bodies, which are formed by state bodies, authorities of the Autonomous Republic of Crimea, local authorities and consultations with civil associations and prepare recommendations for the scope of the Organization.
- 2.4.15. Maintain direct international contacts with organizations of citizens of other countries, conclude relevant agreements and participate in international activities on issues of the Organization that do not contradict the international obligations of Ukraine.
- 2.4.16. To create mass media to achieve the statutory goals.
- 2.4.17. Create and implement various projects, implement programs.
- 2.4.18. On a voluntary basis, participate or create public unions, etc., including international ones, conclude agreements on cooperation and mutual assistance.
- 2.4.19. Obtaining on a rental or temporary free use of a building, equipment, transport and other property necessary for the statute tasks of the Organization.
- 2.4.21. Open accounts in national and foreign currencies at banking institutions.
- 2.4.22. Set awards to award honors to members of the Organization and its partners.
- 2.4.23. Directly or through established legal entities (companies, enterprises) to be the executor of the state order in accordance with the law.
- 2.4.24. Use other rights provided by the legislation of Ukraine.
- 2.5. The Organization is responsible for its obligations on its proper property. The Organization is not responsible for the obligations of its members, and its members are not responsible for the obligations of the Organization, except when they assume these obligations.

3. TARGET AND DIRECTIONS OF ACTIVITY

3.1. The main goal of the Organization is to develop professional training of specialists in the field of Podology and foot care, as well as providing citizens with access to high-quality medical services in the field of Podology.

3.2. The main activities of the Organization are:

3.2.1. Providing access to quality education in the field of Podology and foot care.

3.2.2. Collaboration with public and private educational institutions to apply the practice of members of the association training programs in the field of Podology and foot care.

3.2.3. Conducting seminars, trainings and other educational events.

3.2.4. Collaboration with public and private insurance companies to Providing access to high-quality specialized programs of professional risk insurance for specialists in the field of Podology and foot care of the degrees.

3.2.5. Collaboration with manufacturers of equipment and tools to apply practical experience in improving inventory, equipment and tools in the field of Podology and foot care.

4. PROCEDURE FOR ACQUISITION AND TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP, RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF ORGANIZATION MEMBERS

4.1. Membership in the Organization is voluntary and individual.

4.2. Members of the Organization can be citizens of Ukraine, foreigners and stateless persons, who have been legally in Ukraine for over 14 years, recognize the Organization's statute and promote activities aimed at achieving the goals and objectives of the Organization.

4.3. No one may be forced to join an Organization. Affiliation or non-membership of the Organization cannot be a basis for limiting rights and freedoms providing them with state authorities, other state bodies, local government, any benefits and facilities.

4.4. Admission to the Organization is carried out on the basis of a written application addressed to the Chairman of the Government of the Organization, which is accepted within a month from the date of submission of the relevant application. Government has the right to refuse to accept an individual as a member of the Organization. The Council of the Organization has the right to delegate the right of decision to members of the Organization, its individual members and other statutory bodies.

4.5. All members of the Organization are equal in the exercise of their rights and obligations.

4.5.1. Member rights include:

4.5.1.1. to elect and be elected to the governing bodies of the Organization, to participate in all activities conducted by the Organization;

4.5.1.2. participate in the work of standing and temporary commissions created by decision authorized bodies of the Organization;

4.5.1.3. contact the bodies of the Organization with requests and suggestions on issues related to the activities of the Organization, receive answers;

4.5.1.4. to challenge decisions, actions, inaction of the governing bodies of the Organization, submit applications, objections and complaints about their decisions to the Government and demand consideration of the claim and statement at the General Fee;

4.5.1.5. challenge the decisions of the General Fee in court;

4.5.1.6. receive information on the activities of the Organization;

4.5.1.7. apply to the bodies of the Organization for help in protecting its rights and legitimate interests;

4.5.1.8. to propagandize and promote ideas, make proposals on issues discussed in the Organization before deciding on these issues;

4.5.1.9. freely leave the Organization upon your own written application.

4.5.2. Members of the Organization are required to:

4.5.2.1. adhere to the provisions of the Statute of the Organization;

4.5.2.2. implement decisions of the governing bodies of the Organization;

4.5.2.3. timely pay entrance fees and membership fees within the time limits established by the Government of the Organization;

4.5.2.4. To contribute to the fulfillment of the tasks of the Organization;

4.5.2.5. participate in public events organized by the Organization.

4.6. Organization membership is terminated in the following cases:

4.6.1. Leaving the Organization at will;

4.6.2. Exclusion from the Organization by decision of the Council in connection with a violation of the requirements of this Statute, or if the member's activities are contrary to the goals and objectives of the Organization, or if the participant lost contact with the Organization without good reason or due to the systematic non-payment of membership fees;

4.6.3. The death of a member of the Organization.

Exit from the Organization is carried out upon written request of a member of the Organization addressed to the Chairman of the Governmnet. Membership terminates from the day this application is submitted and does not require additional decisions.

4.7. Grounds for exclusion from the membership of the Organization:

- repeated violations of the requirements of the Statute,

- Not participating in the activities of the Organization in person or through a representative for at least 12 (twelve) months;

- Non-payment of membership fees for the last year.

4.8. The question of exclusion is decided by the board of directors by a majority vote of its members.

4.9. A member of the Organization does not have the right to vote when deciding at a General Fee on the adoption of a decision and a dispute between him and the organization.

5. GOVERNING BODIES OF THE ORGANIZATION

5.1. Government of the Organization is carried out on the basis of democracy, transparency, selectivity of governing bodies, subordination and executive discipline, taking into account the normative documents of the Organization.

5.2. Management bodies of the Organization: General Meetings of members of the Organization, Government of the Organization, President of the Organization.

Meetings of the governing bodies of the Organization (General Meetings, Government) can be held, both with the direct participation of members (their authorized representatives by proxy), and using the Internet connection through audio-visual computer programs of online conferences.

The decision on the form of such a meeting is taken by the Government of the Organization and will notify the members of the decision no later than 10 days before the date of such a meeting (General Meeting, Government).

Any meeting of governing bodies is documented in protocols. The form of the meeting should be indicated in the protocol: if the meeting took place using Internet communication, the protocol shall record with which computer program the meeting took place.

5.3. The General Meetings of Members of the Organization (hereinafter referred to as the General Meetings) is the highest body of the Organization, which has the right to make decisions on any issues of its activities, including those that are within the competence of the Government.

5.3.1. Its members participate in General Meetings in person or through an authorized representative by proxy. Each member of the Organization has one vote. Meetings are considered authorized if most members of the Organization are present.

5.3.2. Regular General Meetings are convened annually by the Government. Relevant decision on the date, time, venue and issues that will be submitted for discussion should be brought to the attention of members no later than 30 days before the meeting of the General Meetings. The General Meetings address issues raised by the Government, the Head of the Organization, as well as its members.

5.3.3. An extraordinary General Meetings is convened in the presence of circumstances affecting significant interests of the Organization, the Government, as well as in other cases provided for Ukrainian legislation and the Statute, within 30 days from the date of occurrence of these circumstances. In this case, the decision of the Organization's Government indicating the date, time, Venues and issues to be discussed should be brought to the attention of the members of the Organization no later than 14 days before the date of the General Meetings.

5.3.4. At least one tenth of the members of the Organization have the right to convene extraordinary General Meetings. If the requirement of the members of the General Meetings is not fulfilled, these members have the right to convene the General Meetings.

5.3.5. The exclusive competence of the General Meetings includes the following issues:

5.3.5.1. The main activities of the Organization, the approval of its plans and reports on their implementation.

5.3.5.2. Introduction and approval of amendments to the constituent documents of the Organization about it.

5.3.5.3. Approval of samples of seals, stamps, symbols and other details of the Organization.

5.3.5.4. The decision to terminate the Organization.

5.3.5.5. Election of a liquidation commission, approval of the liquidation balance sheet.

5.3.5.6. Election of the Government of the Organization and recall of the Government or its individual members.

5.3.5.7. Election and recall of the Head of the Organization.

5.3.5.8. Determination of the procedure and ways of realization and control of property rights.

5.3.6. Decisions of the General Meetings shall be deemed adopted if a majority of the present participants of the General Meetings have voted for them. On the issues provided for in clause 5.3.5.2, clause 5.3.5.4, the decision of the General Meetings is considered adopted if at least three-fourths of the participants of the General Meetings voted in favor. Members of the Organization also decide on the alienation of the property of the Organization in an amount that amounts to fifty or more percent of the property of the Organization.

5.3.7. Manage at a meeting of the General Meetings a member from among the members selected by the General Meetings. The progress of the General Meetings is recorded. Protocols of meetings of the General Meetings shall be kept by the Secretary of the General Meetings, which shall be selected by the General Meetings and signed by the Chairman and the Secretary of the General Meetings.

5.3.8. The General Fee takes decisions in the form of Protocols of the meeting of the General Meetings. Decisions adopted by the General Meetings in accordance with the Statute, internal documents and legislation of Ukraine are binding on all members of the Organization. These decisions come into force from the moment of their adoption, unless otherwise specified by the General Meetings.

5.4. The Government of the Organization is the governing body for the period between the General Meetings, is elected for a period of 2 years and performs the functions of management and organizational activities.

5.4.1. The Government is accountable to the General Meetings and organizes the implementation of their decisions. The Government acts on behalf of the Organization to the extent provided for by this Statute, documents and applicable law.

5.4.2. The president is the Chairman of the Organization.

5.4.3. The structure of the Government, its composition and administrative functions of each of its members are approved by the General Meetings. Members of the Government are accountable to the General Meetings and are responsible for the activities of the Organization and the proper performance of their duties. The Government reports to its members at the General Meetings of the Organization.

5.4.4. The competence of the Government includes:

5.4.4.1. organization of the implementation of decisions of the General Meetings.

5.4.4.2. Convocation of General Meetings and the formation of their agenda, preparation of agenda materials, preliminary consideration of all issues belonging to the competence of fees and draft decisions on these issues at the meeting.

5.4.4.3. Preparation and submission of recommendations to the General Meetings to determine the activities of the Organization, approval of plans and reports on their implementation of the activities of the Organization.

5.4.4.4. Approval of the current plans of the Organization and activities necessary for their implementation.

5.4.4.5. Performing certain functions of managing the property of the General Meetings.

5.4.4.6. Preparation of annual reports on the activities of the Organization, including participation and use of funds and property of the Organization; reports on the implementation of programs and projects organizing and submitting them for approval of the General Meetings.

5.4.4.7. Consideration of other issues, related to the exclusive competence of the General Meetings.

5.4.5. The Chairman of the Organization chairs the meetings of the Government.

5.4.6. All issues included in the competence of the Government are decided collectively by the meeting of the Government. The Government holds ordinary and extraordinary meetings. Regular meetings are convened by the head of the Organization, but at least once every 3 months. Members of the Government are notified of the time, place and order of holding 10 days before the time of its holding. Extraordinary meetings are convened by the Head of the Government or directly at the request of a majority of the members of the Government. A meeting of the Government is legal provided that a majority of its members are present.

5.4.7. Each member of the Government may be proactive in making decisions on any issue falling within the competence of the Government.

5.4.8. They participate in meetings of the members of the Government in person or through a representative by proxy. Decisions of the Government are adopted by a majority vote of those present. Each Government's member has one vote. Voice split of the Chairman of the Organization is crucial.

5.5. The President of the Organization ensures the operational management of affairs, within the limits established by this Statute, General Meetings and the Government and, within the framework of his competence and authority, ensures the implementation of their decisions.

5.5.1. The President is elected and dismissed by the General Meetings once every two years and is accountable to the General Meetings and controlled by the Organization, ex officio is the Chairman of the Government and has the right to submit proposals for consideration to the General Meetings and the Government of the Organization from any aspect of the Organization.

5.5.2. President of the Organization:

5.5.2.1. Acts on behalf of the Organization without a power of attorney and represents the Organization in its relations with other persons.

5.5.2.2. Issues orders, orders, other internal regulatory acts and documents of the Organization.

5.5.2.3. Organizes document management, business, accounting and reporting of the Organization.

5.5.2.4. Carries out the acceptance, transfer and transfer of employees of the Organization, applies measures to promote and punish, and also approves the duties of officials of the Organization.

5.5.2.5. Acts as the manager of funds and property of the Organization, concludes and signs economic and other agreements, contracts, gives a power of attorney and representation on behalf of the Organization.

5.5.2.6. Organizes the preparation of meetings of the Government.

5.5.2.7. It solves other issues of the Organization's activities in accordance with the tasks of its activities assigned to its competence by the internal documents of the Organization from this Statute, takes any other decisions on these issues or performs any other actions in addition to measures related to the competence of other management bodies, the General Meetings of Members of the Organization.

5.5.2.8. Keeps reports on his work and the work of the Government at the General Meetings.

5.5.3 The decision of the Head of the Organization is issued in the form of orders or instructions.

5.5.4. Reporting is carried out at regular General Meetings. Extraordinary reporting carried out at the request of at least a third of the members of the Organization.

5.5.5. The President of the Organization may be removed from position by decision of the majority of the members of the Government until the end of the period for which he was elected in the following cases:

- at their own request, based on a written application and submitted to the Government,
- in case of repeated violations of the requirements of the Statute of the Organization,
- if by his actions he caused the Organization material or moral damage.

5.5.6. If the Chairman of the Organization is unable to take up his duties for more than six (6) months, the Government of the Organization calls extraordinary General Meetings to discuss the situation and the issue of leadership of the Organization.

6. SUPERVISORY COUNCIL

6.1. The Supervisory Council is an advisory and supervisory body of the Organization and carries out an audit of financial and economic activities in the event of the presence of more than ten members of the Organization.

6.2. The Supervisory Council reports only to the General Meetings of the Organization.

6.3. The members of the Supervisory Council are approved by the General Meetings. Member of The Supervisory Council cannot be a member of the Government or the Chairman of the Organization.

6.4. The Supervisory Council is elected from among the members of the Organization consisting of the Chairman of the Council and its two members for a term of 2 years. The Chairman of the Supervisory Council is proposed for approval by members of the Supervisory Council at General Meetings.

6.5. The powers of the Supervisory Council include:

- Introduction of proposals for financial activities and the use of assets of the Organization
- Drawing conclusions on financial activities and use of the assets of the Organization

To the approval of annual budgets, balances, financial and other reports of the governing bodies of the Organization;

- Audit of the financial and economic activities of the Organization;
- Submission of reports on inspections and changes at General Meetings for making appropriate decisions
- Initiation of the convening of extraordinary General Meetings.
- Approval of the annual plan of the Supervisory Council.

6.6. The Supervisory Council is chaired by a Chairman who:

- manages the work of the Supervisory Council;
- convenes the Supervisory Council for ordinary and extraordinary meetings;
- signs documentation prepared by the results of the Supervisory Council.

6.7. The Supervisory Council is valid if most of its members participate in its work.

Decisions are made by a majority of the members of the Supervisory Council present at the meeting. In case of equality of votes, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Council is decisive.

6.8. Members of the Supervisory Council have the right to participate in a meeting of the Government with the right deliberative voice.

7. PROCEDURE FOR CHALLENGING DECISIONS, ACTIONS, INACTIONS OF THE GOVERNING BODIES OF THE ORGANIZATION AND CONSIDERATION OF COMPLAINTS

7.1. Decisions, actions, inaction of the governing bodies of the Organization may be appealed members of the Organization.

7.1.1. An initial complaint about actions, inaction or decisions of the President is submitted to the Government, which is obliged to consider the complaint at the next meeting, with a mandatory appeal of the member of the public association who is complaining, as well as the Head of the Organization / Chairman of the Government of actions, inaction or decisions that are disputed. In case of refusal to consider the complaint council, a repeated complaint shall be submitted to the General Meetings, which are obliged to consider the complaint at the next or extraordinary meeting with a mandatory call of the member who complains, as well as the President of the Organization of an act of inaction or whose decision is disputed.

7.1.2. The main complaint about actions, inaction or decision of a member of the Government is submitted to the Organization, which is obliged to consider the complaint within 20 working days, by compulsory appeal of the member of the public association, the complainant, as well as the member of the Government, an action, inaction or decision that is disputed. In case of rejection of the complaint by the Chairman of the Organization, a repeated complaint shall be submitted to the General Meetings, which must consider the complaint at the next or extraordinary meeting with the mandatory call of the member who complains, as well as the member of the Government, for actions, omissions or decisions that are disputed. A claim requiring consideration at extraordinary General Meetings shall be the basis for convening such General Meetings within thirty days from the date of receipt of such a complaint.

7.1.3. A complaint against an action, inaction or decision of the General Meetings of the Organization shall be submitted in accordance with applicable law at the time of appeal of such actions, inaction or decision.

7.2. Decisions, actions (inaction) that may be appealed include decisions in management activities of the governing bodies of the Organization, as a result of which:

7.2.1. The rights, legitimate interests or freedoms of a member of the Organization (group of members) are violated.

7.2.2. Obstacles have been created in the way of the implementation of a member of the Organization of his / her rights and / or legitimate interests and freedoms.

7.2.3. Illegally imposed duty on a member of the Organization or unlawful application of it to disciplinary liability.

8. INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

8.1. The Organization in accordance with its statutory tasks has the right international relations and activities in the manner prescribed by this Statute, the legislation of Ukraine.

8.2. The international activities of the Organization are carried out by participating in international projects, the work of international organizations, as well as other forms that do not contradict the legislation of Ukraine, the norms and principles of international law.

8.3. Carrying out international activities, the Organization enjoys the full scope of the rights and obligations of a legal entity.

8.4. Organization:

8.4.1. Organizes the exchange of delegations, organizes tournaments with the participation of foreign partners, contests, conferences, exhibitions, fairs, and sends its representatives to participate in relevant events outside Ukraine;

8.4.2. Conducts research in conjunction with foreign organizations in accordance with the directions of their activities, publish their results;

8.4.3. It implements other joint programs and projects with the participation of foreign partners and international organizations, which does not contradict the current legislation of Ukraine.

9. SEPARATE DEPARTMENTS OF THE ORGANIZATION

9.1. The Organization may have separate units that are not legal entities and are formed by the decision of the General Meetings of the Organization.

9.2. Individual divisions of the Organization are governed by the Statute of the Organization.

9.3. The heads of individual divisions are appointed at the General Meetings for a period of 2 years and work by proxy. Heads of individual units must be members of the Organization.

9.4. Separate units have the following powers:

9.4.1. Represent the Organization in the territory in which they are authorized,

9.4.2. Carry out the goals and tasks of the Organization established by the Statute in the territory on which they are authorized, according to the decision of the General Meetings.

9.4.3. They are conducting work to attract new members (participants) using funds not prohibited by the legislation of Ukraine.

9.5. The head of a separate unit has the right:

9.5.1. decide on the use of the Organization's name and symbols for implementation Organization tasks.

9.5.2. ask the governing bodies of the Organization for assistance in the implementation of the task of the Organization.

9.5.3. attend a meeting of the Government of the Organization (without the right to vote).

9.5.4. petition the governing bodies of the Organization.

9.6. The manager of a separate unit is required to:

9.6.1 adhere to the requirements of the Statute of the Organization.

9.6.2. Comply with the regulatory requirements of the governing bodies of the Organization.

9.6.3. Prevent actions aimed at violating the honor and dignity of members (participants) of the Organization.

9.7. The activities of a separate unit may be terminated by closing the decision at the General Meetings.

9.8. The Organization informs the State Registration Authority about the closure of a separate unit in accordance with the current legislation of Ukraine.

9.9. The property and funds provided by a separate unit, after the termination of its activities, are transferred directly to the Government, before a decision is made on the distribution of property and the allocation of funds at the General Meetings of the Organization.

10. MONEY AND PROPERTY OF THE ORGANIZATION

10.1. The Organization is a non-entrepreneurial company. To implement its program and statutory goals, the Organization's property may have funds, securities, non-property rights, tangible and intangible assets, equipment, vehicles, other means and property that are not prohibited by the current legislation of Ukraine.

10.2. The Organization independently and independently exercises the rights of ownership, use and disposition of the property, monetary, property and non-property rights proper to her through their statutory bodies within their competence.

10.3. The property of the Organization consists of funds or property that are delivered free of charge or in the form of irrevocable financial assistance or voluntary donations, contributions of members of the Organization, passive income; grants or subsidies from the state or local budgets, also from state trust funds, financial support for programs (projects, activities) at the expense of state and local budgets, from the execution of state orders; for charity, humanitarian and technical assistance, including in accordance with international treaties of Ukraine; acquired as a result of the entrepreneurial activity of the Organization and entrepreneurial activity of legal entities created by it (companies, enterprises); income from the main activities of the Organization in accordance with this Statute and the Legislation; assets acquired at own expense or acquired on other grounds not prohibited by law.

10.4. The income (profit) or property of the Organization or part thereof is not subject to distribution between the founders (participants), members of the Organization, employees (except for remuneration of their work, accrual of a single social contribution), members of the Government and other related parties.

10.5. Revenues (profits) and property of the Organization are used exclusively to finance the costs of maintaining the Organization, the implementation of goals (tasks) and directions of activity defined by this Statute.

10.6. The Organization is responsible for its obligations to all property belonging to the right of ownership. The Organization is not responsible for member obligations. Members are responsible for the obligations of the Organization, unless otherwise provided by law.

10.7. The Organization is obliged to keep accounting, statistics, financial statements, be registered with the fiscal service authorities and contribute to the budget with taxes and fees in the manner and amounts prescribed by law. The Organization must keep at least five years all necessary accounting documents, documents on domestic and international operations.

10.8. State supervision and monitoring of compliance with the law is carried out by executive authorities, local authorities in the manner determined by the legislation of Ukraine.

11. PROCEDURE FOR ALTERATION THE STATUTE

11.1. The procedure for amending the Statute is determined by the Statute and the current legislation of Ukraine.

11.2. Amendments to this Statute shall be approved by a decision of the General Meetings if at least 3/4 of the members of the Organization vote for it. Changes made to the statute documents are registered by the authorized body for registration.

12. TERMINATION OF THE ACTIVITY OF THE ORGANIZATION

12.1. The termination of the organization's activities is carried out by the decision of the public association, adopted by the General Meetings, by self-dissolution or reorganization, or by a court decision on the prohibition (forced dissolution) of the public association.

12.2. The termination of activities of a public association with the status of a legal entity as a result has the termination of activities of a legal entity.

12.3. The Organization has the right at any time to decide on the termination of activity (self-dissolution).

12.4 The decision on the dissolution of the Organization is taken by the General Meetings if at least three quarters of the participants in the General Meeting voted for it. General Meetings create a liquidation commission or entrust the Government with the powers of a liquidation commission to terminate the activities of a public organization as a legal entity and make decisions on the use of the funds and property of a public association after its termination in accordance with the Statute.

12.5. The reorganization of the Organization is carried out by decision of the General Meetings, if at least three quarters of the members of the General Meetings voted for this by merger, division, accession or transformation.

12.6. The procedural and legal consequences of the termination of the Organization of self-dissolution, reorganization or prohibition (forced dissolution) of the Organization is determined in accordance with this Statute and the current legislation of Ukraine.

12.7. In case of termination of the Organization as a result of its liquidation (self-dissolution, forced dissolution) or reorganization (merger, division, accession or transformation), its assets will be transferred to one or more non-profit organizations of the corresponding kind or transferred to budget revenue.